

The People's Press.

SALEM, N. C.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 1876.

THE commencement of a new year and the opening of a new volume of the PRESS is a convenient time to subscribe for this paper. The times are not so hard as to debar any person from spending FOUR CENTS a week, for his local county paper. To persons wishing to form clubs, 10 copies will be furnished for $15.00, making the outlay still less. There are few neighborhoods where a club of ten could not be made up with a little exertion. A liberal commission allowed to agents.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The annual week of prayer will commence Sunday evening. The following programme will show the several subjects for prayer:

SUNDAY, Jan. 7.—Sermons: Christian fellowship, I John, 1, 7.

MONDAY, Jan. 8.—Thanksgiving and Confession—in the review of the past year.

TUESDAY, Jan. 9.—Prayer: For the Holy Spirit on the Universal Church, Joel II, 28—for its deliverance from error and corruption, and its increase in faith, activity, holiness, and Christian charity.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 10.—Prayer for families—for the unconverted; for sons and daughters at school and college, and for those abroad; for any in sickness, trouble, or temptation; and for those who have been recently "added to the Church."

THURSDAY, Jan. 11.—Prayer for nations—for rulers, magistrates, and statesmen; for philanthropists and benevolent institutions; for a pure literature, the spread of sound education among the people and the maintenance of peace.

FRIDAY, Jan. 12.—Prayer for Christian missions to the Jews and Gentiles, Luke xxiv, 47; Sunday-schools; and for the conversion of the world to Christ.

SATURDAY, Jan. 13.—Prayer for the observance of the Christian Sabbath; for the promotion of temperance, and for the safety of those "who go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters."

SUNDAY, Jan. 14.—Sermons: One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, Ephesians iv, 5, 6.

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.—The voting for a President was agreed upon between party leaders, a majority of all electors necessary to a choice, Congress can go behind the returns, the count to be in joint session.

THE RALEIGH OBSERVER.—A first-class Democratic newspaper, its non published daily and weekly. Daily, 8c. Weekly, $2.

A SENSIBLE IDEA.—The Norfolk Landmark says that a bill will soon be introduced in the Virginia State Senate doing away with the sending of persons to the penitentiary convicted of the lower grades of crime, and in lieu thereof making them work on the roads in the county in which the offence is committed. By this means it is argued that the State will be saved much expense, and the country roads kept in good order.

Let North Carolina legislators make a note of this.

News Items.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The work of the Congressional Committee in South Carolina has been concluded, and the State given to Hayes and Hampton and the other Democratic State officers.

FLORIDA.—Unsettled. Refer to another column for latest news from the land of flowers.

LOUISIANA.—No important developments. Kellogg on replying to the protest against barricading the State House, says, as Governor he assumed the right to control the approaches to the House of Representatives.

CONSPIRING.—It has cropped out upon examination before the sub-committees in New Orleans that affidavits, produced before the Returning Board and appended to Senator Sherman's Louisiana report, are essentially different from those originally sworn to before the magistrates of Ouachita parish.

Senator GORDON presented Hampton's memorial, protesting against military interference, to the United States Senate. The consideration of Gordon's Resolution that the Senate recognize Hampton's Government as the legal one was laid over. See elsewhere.

BRIDGE DISASTER.—At the bridge disaster at Ashblum, Ohio, a few days since, 100 passengers were killed and many wounded.

The bridge was an iron truss bridge and the whole train with seven passenger coaches, containing about 167 souls, besides a number of children, was precipitated some sixty feet into the river.

AMENDMENTS.—The Constitutional Amendments went into effect Monday last.

RAILROAD.—The survey of the Salisbury and Mt. Airy Narrow Gauge Railroad was to have commenced on the 31st inst. Guess it was postponed.

Tilden's vote in the United States is 4,268,267; Hayes, 4,027,245; Cooper, 80,792; Smith (temperance) 10,055; scattering, 2,791. Majority for Tilden over Hayes, 241,022; over all, 147,384; total vote, 8,489,150.

Twenty-one States show Republican majorities, seventeen Democratic. Iowa is the banner Republican and Georgia the banner Democratic State. The smallest Democratic majority is in Delaware, the smallest Republican in Florida. All but four show Democratic gains, the largest being in Pennsylvania. The largest Republican gain was in Kansas. The Democratic gained eleven States since 1872.

This vote may be altered in some few particulars, but it is very nearly accurate. —Wm. McKinley's rangers have, in the last few days, captured or killed about seventy-five of the worst desperadoes in western Texas.

THE INAUGURATION.

How and Where the Ceremonies were Performed.

Monday was the great day to which the State had looked forward since the 7th of November last. It was the day when North Carolina came again into history, when her most beloved and gifted son laid his hand for the third time on the helm of the ship of State, and when the Democratic white people of the State took full possession of all the branches of the government, save only the judicial. Considering that alien and renegades have ruled us for ten years past it is not wonderful that the event had excited deep interest all over the State, and that every section had its representatives here.

THE WEATHER.

The inauguration could not have fallen upon a more disagreeable day. The morning opened black and dismal, and the disagreeableness increased as the day advanced. About 10 o'clock the heavy fall and came down in such terrific manner, so rapidly and in flakes of such size, as to make it evident, very soon, that the ceremonies of the inauguration could not be had on the platform prepared for the purpose. Notwithstanding the fact that a large force of penitentiary convicts had been engaged all the morning in clearing the snow from the walks of the capital grounds and from all around the stand, the idea of using this was entirely abandoned, and Tucker Hall was engaged for the purpose.

Neither the crowd throughout. A strong force of police guarded the entrance, excluding everybody except ladies and their escorts, members of the press and other privileged persons. The ladies occupied the galleries, and before the body of the hall was occupied the galleries were packed by a crowd of ladies than which we venture to say a more beautiful never assembled in the State.

At 12 o'clock and 4 minutes the General Assembly entered the hall, the members of the House of Representatives first, headed by Mr. Spencer Price, and the Senate following, the Senators led by Mr. President Robinson. The members were seated in the main hall, and the hall almost filling it. While the crowd waited impatiently inside for the coming of Gov. Vance.

AN IMMENSE CROWD.

almost riotous, besieged the door, threatening to overrun the police or to take Gov. Vance by force to the capitol, there to be inaugurated.

After the crowd inside and out had waited with painful eagerness for the space of an hour, the legislative committee on inauguration appeared at the door and walked down the aisle, followed by Gov. Vance leaning on the arm of Gov. Brogden, they followed in turn by Mr. Secretary of State, Hon. James L. Robinson, and Attorney-General, Hon. James L. Robinson, who took seats on the stage. Gov. Vance had been escorted from the hotel in his carriage, by the military companies, Capt. Charles Haigh, of the Lafayette Light Infantry, acting as Colonel of the battalion, and Lieut. J. Colton Lynes, of the Foresters' Nest Riflemen, as Adjutant-General. The military companies, who took seats on the stage, Gov. Mrs. Vance had previously entered, on the arm of Hon. F. E. Shober, and was seated in private box on one side of the stage, with other wives of the new State officers. In addition to those already mentioned and perhaps others, the following named gentlemen were on the stage: Chief Justice Pearson and Associate Justices Beade, Rodman and Faircloth, of the Supreme Court bench; Hon. J. M. Leach, Hon. F. E. Shober, Hon. D. G. Fowler, Gen. W. R. Cox, Col. Ewing, a brother of Gen. Thomas Ewing, of Ohio, Gen. R. B. Vance, and Col. A. S. Buford.

As Gov. Vance entered the hall, and after he had taken his seat, the shouts of the multitude caused the walls of the building to almost tremble.

CHEER AFTER CHEER ASCENDED

continuously and the stamping of feet, and clapping of hands was unintermittent. When the program was over, the excellent Salisbury Band, which was stationed in the gallery, played "Sweet Spirit Hear My Prayer," and after a considerable time had elapsed, Col. E. P. Jones appeared on the front of the stage and enjoined order. This being partially secured, he announced that Rev. J. Henry Smith, D. D., of Greenville, would invoke the Divine presence. Dr. Smith said:

PRAYER.

O Lord, Thou art the King eternal, immortal and invisible, the true God, Thou art the high and mighty Ruler of the universe, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. We earnestly and reverently look to Thee and implore upon these proceedings, and this assembling the Divine benediction. We beg Thy presence and Thy blessing upon the assembly here today. Thou hast taught us not to lean upon ourselves, but upon Thee. Grant us that Thy servants who are gathered here today to take upon themselves the responsibilities of government may be inspired with all needed wisdom from on high. We render Thee hearty thanks and ask for Thy especial blessing on Gov. Vance, who is called upon to rule over these people, wisdom from on high, now and may Thy blessing be everywhere in this land. Hear us now in mercy and graciously be present with and bless us for the sake of Thy son, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MR. STAPLE'S REMARKS.

At the conclusion of the prayer, John N. Staples, Esq., Chairman of the Legislative Committee, arose and announced that necessity had arisen by reason of the inclement weather, for a change of programme, but that the original programme would be observed as far as possible. He stated that next in order, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Attorney General and the Lieutenant Governor elect, would be qualified, the oath of office being administered by Associate Justice Beade, and that afterwards, Chief Justice Pearson would administer the oath to the Governor elect.

THE SWEARING IN.

With this, John O. Scarborough, Esq., Superintendent of Public Instruction, Col. Thomas S. Koenig, Attorney General, and Capt. Thos. J. Jarvis, Lieutenant Governor, advanced separately, in the order named, to the desk on the front of the stage, and took the oath prescribed by law. After the oaths had been taken, Messrs. Try and Roberts, of the Legislative Committee, conducted Lieut. Gov. Jarvis to a seat by the side of Hon. James L. Robinson, President pro tempore of the Senate.

Gov. Brogden then arose and said: LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to announce that Hon. Z. B. Vance, the Governor-elect of the State, is now present to take the oath of office.

Gov. Vance went forward, and slowly read over the following oath, to which he afterwards subscribed therewith, and it was then attested by the Chief Justice.

I, Zebulon B. Vance, do solemnly swear that I will support and maintain the constitution and laws of the United States, and the constitution and laws of North Carolina, and I will faithfully discharge the duties of Governor. So help me God.

[We will publish Gov. Vance's inaugural Address next week.]

THE INAUGURATION.

How and Where the Ceremonies were Performed.

Monday was the great day to which the State had looked forward since the 7th of November last. It was the day when North Carolina came again into history, when her most beloved and gifted son laid his hand for the third time on the helm of the ship of State, and when the Democratic white people of the State took full possession of all the branches of the government, save only the judicial. Considering that alien and renegades have ruled us for ten years past it is not wonderful that the event had excited

S. S. CONCERT.—After several postponements, on account of unfavorable weather, the Salem Sunday School gave its Christmas Concert, on Tuesday evening, which was well attended, and was an enjoyable occasion.

DURING the Snow and Sleet between Christmas and New Year, two fractures of the thigh, 1 of the arm and 2 dislocations of limbs caused by falls on the ice occurred in the scope of Dr. Shelton's practice, in Davidson county. All now doing well.

THE NEW YEAR MEETINGS in Moravian Church were very well attended, considering the severity of the weather. At 8 A. M., on Sunday evening the Memorial was read by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Oerter. At 11 o'clock, the watch-meeting was held by the Rt. Rev. E. A. De Schweinitz, who was suddenly interrupted in his discourse as the clock tolled the hour of midnight, the New Year being ushered in with a piece rendered by the Choir and Orchestra.

READING CLUB.—At a regular meeting of the Salem Reading Club, held at their rooms last week, the following officers were elected and installed:
R. A. Hamilton, President.
F. Minnow, Secretary.
J. Shultz, Treasurer.
E. A. Ebert and H. S. Crist, Room Committee.

HEAVY PORK.—Mr. C. Ebert, of this place, slaughtered some fine hogs on the 28th ult., weighing 315 and 330 apiece.
Mr. John H. Poindexter, of Winston, slaughtered a hog 16 months and 11 days old, weighing 360 lbs. net.
Mr. Adam Hauser of East Bend, Yadkin County, slaughtered a hog not over two years old weighing 526 pounds.

COLD! COLDER!! COLDEST!!!—Thermometers, for the past week, ranged from 10 degrees above to 10 degrees below zero. On Tuesday and Wednesday mornings they ranged from 4 to 10 degrees below zero. There has not been as cold a spell of weather since 1857. Firewood has been quite an object, as many were unprepared for this unusual degree of cold.

The Mill Race below town is covered with solid ice 4 to 5 inches in thickness, affording a fine field for the skaters, who are enabled to skate the whole length of the race, and upon the main channel of the creek, to Fogle's (formerly Batner's) bottom.

THE TRAIN was behind time on last Saturday night again; but this is now a common complaint. On Monday our regular train left at the usual hour, 7 A. M., but owing to the recent heavy snow storm, and being without a snow plow, it was impossible to reach Greensboro, proceeding no further than 9 miles, the conductor walking back to the depot and telegraphing for another engine with plow attached, which reached the depot on Tuesday about noon. Consequently our mail was delayed for 3 days.

On Monday evening the inhabitants of Salem were startled from their accustomed quiet, by hearing in the distance a jingle of sleigh-bells that told of speed far beyond the average.

As the vehicle dashed past, the startled pedestrian found time to recognize only one of the occupants, who is a gentleman well-known in town. His companion, evidently a lady, but of gigantic stature, seemed to be quite unknown, and created a widespread sensation, owing to her peculiar dress and general appearance.

Since then speculation has been on "tip toe," as to the identity of the "fair one," and there has been no small amount of conjecture as to their destination, etc.

Some hold the opinion that the lady was intended for exhibition at the Museum and endeavored to prove it by the direction in which she was travelling, while a few of the more romantic young ladies suggested an elopement, which suspicion seemed to be justified by the fearful speed at which the couple went.

The affair remains shrouded in the deepest mystery nothing being known but that: "They came—they went like the Simoon, That harbinger of fate and gloom."

DIED.
In this county, on Sunday last, Mr. ARNER WALKER, a well known citizen, at an advanced age.

In this county, on the 25th ult., Mrs. ANNA FAW, aged 80 years.
